To the Hon Daniel A White Esquire Judge of Probate for the County of Essex

I Benjamin Day, of Ipswich in the county of Essex and commonwealth of Massachusetts, yeoman, hereby make my last will and testament, and dispose of my worldly goods and estate in manner following.

First. I will, that all my just debts and funeral charges, and charges attending the settlement of my estate, be paid and discharged by my executor as soon as may be after my decease.

Secondly. I give, devise and bequeath all my estate, real and personal, of what name, nature or description soever, after payment of the debts and charges above mentioned, to my sisters Mary Day and Sarah Day, and the survivor of them; to hold the same to them the said Mary and Sarah, and the survivor of them, and the heirs and assigns of such survivor forever.

Thirdly. I name Stephen Pearson, of Ipswich aforesaid, yeoman, sole executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof, I have set my hand and seal this seventeenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

Signed and sealed by the said Benjamin Day, and declared by him to be his last will and testament, in presence of us, who here set our names as witnesses, in his presence and in presence of each other:—
