

Sister of Larkspur Man Married in N. Y.

News comes from New York through the Associated Press dispatches of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Allen, sister of Fred Allen of the Alpine Garage of Larkspur, to J. Waldo Sampson of New York City.

Miss Allen was a teacher of music and lived with her brother's family in Larkspur for some time. She was interested in the A. and E. Cafe on El Camino Real while here. She has done considerable writing, especially of short stories and scenarios for the Movies. Mr. Sampson is a newspaper man of considerable note both in the East and on the Pacific Coast. Larkspur wishes them happiness.
