

OBITUARY

MRS. FRANK E. SOUTHARD

Former Prominent Bath Woman Dies Aged 82

Mrs. Southard, nee Mabel B. Sampson, wife of the late Frank E. Southard, well known Bath attorney, died on June 22 in Boston at her home on West Cedar street after a long illness. Born in Readfield, Me., June 16, 1871, she was the daughter of Joseph B. Sampson and Henrietta Freeman Sampson. She was a direct descendant of Myles Standish.

During her years in Bath, Mrs. Southard was active in the work of the Universalist church and served as president of the Cosmopolitan Club for several terms. She has lived in Boston since 1924. In her late sixties she established a real estate business renting apartments on Beacon Hill and in the Back Bay until her advancing age forced her to limit her activities a few years ago.

She leaves a daughter Frances M. Southard of Boston and a brother, J. Waldo Sampson of Santa Rosa, Calif.

Funeral services will be at her former home, 819 High street, now the A. F. Mayo & Son Funeral home.

Rev. Richard J. Schaper, pastor of Winter street church, will officiate. Burial will be in the family lot at Oak Grove.

On Tuesday, June 30, at three there will be a Memorial Service in Boston at King's Chapel.
