

Lincoln's April Tenth 1770. This Day surveyed for M<sup>r</sup>. Nathaniel Tibbitts this Lot of Land situate in said Boothbay described & bounded as followith, to wit, beginning at an old stump standing on the wester ly bank of <sup>the</sup> Cross River so called, it being the N. E. corner of M<sup>r</sup>. Tho<sup>s</sup> Henney Lot, thence running West two hundred & sixty four Poles, to a poplar Tree marked A Seals, thence running North eighty Poles to a spruce Tree marked four sides, thence East course till it strikes the shore by a large hemlock Tree marked, thence southerly as the shore runs bounded by the shore to the first bounds mentioned to contain one hundred & thirty Acres as appears by this actual Survey taken by me Tho<sup>s</sup> Boyd sworn Surveyor of Lands, and is laid down by a scale of forty Poles to an Inch.

Lincoln's Dec<sup>r</sup>. May 5th. 1770 and accordingly entered & examined
